

Mock Test — How Nature Works in Harmony

A mixed paper covering the whole chapter. Total: 20 marks. Section A is interactive.

Objective (1 mark each)

Q1 • MCQ

[1]

The place where an organism lives is its —

- (a) habitat (b) population (c) community (d) corridor

Q2 • MCQ

[1]

Which is abiotic?

- (a) frog (b) water (c) algae (d) fish

Q3 • MCQ

[1]

A group of the same kind of organism is a —

- (a) community (b) population (c) habitat (d) species

Q4 • MCQ

[1]

"A snake eats fish" is a —

- (a) biotic–biotic interaction (b) biotic–abiotic interaction (c) abiotic–abiotic interaction
(d) no interaction

Q5 • MCQ

[1]

Wildlife corridors help by —

- (a) connecting habitats for safe animal movement (b) cutting forests (c) building roads
(d) trapping animals

Q6 · TRUE / FALSE

[1]

Pollination helps plants form seeds.

(a) True (b) False

Q7 · FILL IN THE BLANK

[1]

Living parts of a habitat are _____ components.

Q8 · FILL IN THE BLANK

[1]

All populations in a habitat together form a _____.

Short answer (2 marks each)

Q9

[2]

Differentiate between biotic and abiotic components with an example each.

Q10

[2]

Differentiate between a population and a community.

Q11

[2]

Why do elephants enter villages, and how do corridors help?

Long / application (3 marks each)

Q12

[3]

Explain, with the pond example, how removing fish can change the number of pollinators and plant seeds.

Q13

[3]

Describe how human activities can harm a habitat and one way to protect wildlife.

Check yourself → Answer key