

Mock Test — Health: The Ultimate Treasure

A mixed paper covering the whole chapter. Total: 20 marks. Section A is interactive.

Objective (1 mark each)

Q1 • MCQ

[1]

As per the WHO, health is complete physical, social and _____ well-being.

- (a) financial (b) mental (c) political (d) digital

Q2 • MCQ

[1]

Which is a non-communicable disease?

- (a) Cholera (b) Diabetes (c) Measles (d) Dengue

Q3 • MCQ

[1]

Malaria is caused by a —

- (a) virus (b) bacterium (c) protozoan (d) worm

Q4 • MCQ

[1]

Antibiotics are NOT effective against —

- (a) bacteria (b) viruses (c) cholera-causing germs (d) TB bacteria

Q5 • MCQ

[1]

The first vaccine was developed by —

- (a) Fleming (b) Jenner (c) Hooke (d) Volta

Q6 • TRUE / FALSE

[1]

A symptom is something a doctor can measure, like fever.

- (a) True (b) False

Q7 · FILL IN THE BLANK

[1]

Insects that carry pathogens, like mosquitoes, are called _____.

Q8 · FILL IN THE BLANK

[1]

Penicillin, the first _____, was discovered by Fleming.

Short answer (2 marks each)

Q9

[2]

Differentiate between a sign and a symptom with an example each.

Q10

[2]

Give two differences between communicable and non-communicable diseases.

Q11

[2]

Why are vaccines described as preventive and not curative?

Long / application (3 marks each)

Q12

[3]

Explain how communicable diseases spread (any three routes) and give one preventive measure for each route.

Q13

[3]

What is antibiotic resistance? How does it develop, and how can it be prevented?

Check yourself → Answer key